Prepared to Serve is a program of Sound Circle Center for Arts and Anthroposophy, a full member institute of AWSNA

"I highly recommend that all Board members take this training, even if you have a lot of experience being on a Waldorf School Board. The content is comprehensive but not overwhelming and the discussion was extremely helpful and inspiring. It was hugely valuable to meet with Board members from schools across the country. I also came out of the training with a greater sense of connection to the whole and that there is a much larger support system out there that can be tapped into." Board Member and Course Participant
