

Inspiring professional development opportunities in collaborative leadership, organizational development, Waldorf school administration and generative dialog for school leaders, staff, and key volunteers

Summer 2023 Offerings

Maine Coast Waldorf School, Freeport, ME July 16-21 with Lisa Mahar and Michael Soule

The Art of Administration and Evolving Waldorf Schools

Understanding the Social and Spiritual Foundations

School Organization and the Image of the Human Being

The Dynamics of School Governance

Leadership in a Collaborative Spiritual Organization

The Healing Social Life: Working Together

Presentations, Case Studies, Discussion Groups, Inner Development, Artistic Work, Group Work

Whidbey Island, WA July 23-28

with Michael Soule and Sián Owen Cruise

The Art of Administration and Evolving Waldorf Schools

Deepening Principles, Roles, and Practices

Self-Administration and Collaboration

Phases of Administrative Development and Administrative Leadership

Our Dialogue with the World:

Marketing, Enrollment, Finance and Development

A New Imagination for Partnership:

Administration, Board, and Faculty Relationships

Presentations, Case Studies, Discussion Groups, Inner Development, Artistic Work, Group Work

Deepening Principles, Roles, and Practices

A condensed version of the course described above is also being held Online July 3-7

with Michael Soule and Lisa Mahar

In-person Course fee $800 (USD or CND)

Online course fee $500 (USD or CDN)

Registration information at Leadingwithspirit.org or contact lisamahar5@gmail.com

Leading with Spirit offers summer intensive retreats and a part-time two-year professional development program designed to support administrative leadership in Waldorf Schools and collaborative institutions. Full program information available at www.LeadingswithSpirit.org